A note from PCCS Administrator, Chris Causey - -

Aloha kula 'ohana -that's Hawaiian for "Hello school family"! This Saturday evening is our 11th Annual Benefit Auction, "Polynesian Paradise" is the theme for the evening. There have already been over 370 items logged in to auction off and they are still working on them! This is the number one fundraiser for our school. With our tuition funding 70% of our expenses, you can see how important this night is for our school. Please invite others and get your tickets in the office today! Praise the Lord for the great things He has done and will do at the auction!

In anticipation for the auction, tomorrow Tuesday March 9th will be "Hawaiian Dress Up Day" here at school!! Break out the flowery shirts and pants and show your support for the auction. The students were told they could wear an "islandy" (this is a word we made up in chapel to describe the style) hat as well. Other dress code rules still apply. Please help your child find some fun "islandy" clothes and accessories for school tomorrow!!!

It has taken no less than a small army to comb through the details of the auction, from the auction coordinators to the families that go out and ask for donations to make this a successful night!! Mahalo (Thank you) for all you have done and are doing to make this a success!

For His Cause,

Chris Causey
